

Alexis Camorlinga Medina

JUNIOR FRONT-END WEB DEV

Personal Summary

I am a fresh Graduate of Kenzie Academy from southern New Hampshire University. I have recently acquired my Associate's Degree in Front-End Web Development and plan on expanding my knowledge even more through practice, and courses. My interests include polishing my skills in JavaScript, HTML, CSS, and React. I hope to secure a successful career in the Technical field, so I can assist people to develop a great, and safe user experience.
